

Department/Service: Boy Scout Summer Camp

Job Type: Contract

Location: Frankton, IN

Qualifications:

- Be at least 18 years of age.
- Have physician, nurse practitioner, nurse (RN, LPN, or LVN), physician's assistant, paramedic, or emergency medical technician training that comply with licensing requirements of the State of Indiana.
- Has a current First Aid and CPR/AED for the Professional Rescuer and Health Care Providers certification from the American Red Cross, or equivalent community agency.
- Have the aptitude and interest in working with individuals from a variety of ages and respond to medical situations that may arise at Summer Camp

Job Description: We are searching for individuals that are interested in becoming a Medical Officer at Boy Scout of America's Adventure Camp in Frankton, IN. The Medical officer responsibilities are:

- Supervise health and safety practices on site. Cares for non-serious injuries on site and enters in first aid log.
- Oversees the health and safety of camp:
- Administers first aid for injuries.
- Assist with medical rechecks.
- Maintains first aid logs for campers and staff.
- Does a daily check of cold charts in Health Office.
- Makes decision to send participants to the hospital when medical needs cannot be met at camp.
- Coordinates transportation for serious injuries to medical facilities.
- Executes direct intervention on staff members when health and welfare are in jeopardy or being diminished.
- In coordination with the entire staff, works to minimize the risk of injury and sickness for the entire camp.

Salary: $348.00 a week

How to Apply: To apply for the position, please contact Drew Godby at dcgodby@gmail.com.

Application Deadline: June 3, 2016